Petitioner is facing trial for offence u/s.138 of Negotiable Instruments Act. After statements of complainant and of petitioner u/s.313 Cr.P.C. were recorded at the stage of defence evidence, application was filed for placing certain documents on record in support of his grievance, of which reference has been made in application dated 14th June, 2007. Learned trial Judge in his order observed that matter was fixed for defence evidence on 9th November, 2006 atleast for 5 occasion the matter was adjourned and the petitioner failed to record their defence evidence and at this stage, he has come with application filing certain documents on record and has not considered appropriate to grant any permission at this stage. The revisional court also considered and examined the same and it has been observed that application filed by him u/s.91 Cr.P.C. is primarily for court to summon the document if it is required for just decision of case. Since filing of document at this stage apart from its relevancy, nothing came on record which may justify and accordingly, revision petition was also dismissed.

This court has gone through the order impugned and does not find any infirmity which may call for interference.

Consequently, the misc. petition fails and is hereby dismissed.
